ICE CREAM CONES NOT NUTRITIOUS SAYS EXAMINER

Report Made to City Board of Health After the Analysis.

Mostly Composed of Nothing At All.

PRESERVATIVES NOT FOUND.

Analysis of the ice cream cones sold in Paducah show that preservatives are not used, but the ingredients are certainly not to be recommended as food for children. The analysis of the cones, which was ordered by the city board of health, has been completed by Dr. G. C. McKinney, of the Illinois Central hospital staff, and his report of the analysis given to Dr. R. Z. Holland, city health officer. It is probable that steps will be taken to prevent the sale of the cones in the city unless better ingredients are used in the cream.

That there is a high per cent of profit in the sale of the cones is evident from the analysis. To weigh one pound it requires 128 of the empty cones, which are composed of wheat flour. The ice cream with which they are filled is of the cheapest quality, and considering the labor necessary to prepare the cones, there is a profit of several cents on each cone. The cones are not adulterated as chemists have found the cones sold in the large cities.

The report of the analysis is:

"Board of Health. 'Gentlemen: Following is a report of the ice cream cones sent to me by you for examination. The contents of the cones is not ice cream at all, but a mixture of water, gelatin, and starch sweetened and flavored. The stuff is about equal in nutrition to a mixture of one-tenth milk and nine-tenths water, shown as follows:

"Cane's milk is made up of 88 percent water and 12 percent solids, the latter being equally divided between protein, milk sugar and fat. That is 1 percent each. The cones examined by me contained a mixture having only one-tenth of one percent protein and two-tenths of one percent milk sugar. There was scarcely a trace of cream. However, no preservatives as salicylic acid or sodium benzoate were found. As to the cones themselves, they contained a mixture of sugar and a combination of protein and starch. Probably wheat flour cooked. No clay or other foreign substances were found. The weight of one cone without its contents is one drachm or 128 to the pound.

"Respectfully yours,

"G. C. McKinney, M. D."

COUNTY AND STATE TAX WILL BE COLLECTED SOON

The time is rapidly approaching when the penalty will go into effect on the county and state taxes and all citizens are warned by Sheriff George Houser that they must not cut off the payment of the taxes too long. The law is rigid upon the payment of the taxes, and although the agents of the sheriff, Houser, will be moved to collect the ten percent penalty, the collection of state and county taxes is progressing at a fair rate, but the collection should be much better as the county can well use the money and save the interest on borrowed funds.

Sheriff Houser has started out with the intention of reducing the delinquent tax list to a minimum, and to place the burden of taxation upon all the people instead of permitting a long list of property owners to escape through the delinquent list. He will give every property owner a chance to escape through the delinquent list. He will give every property owner an opportunity to pay the tax and escape the penalty, but will enforce the law strictly. The collection of taxes last month was good, but this month the receipts have dropped off slightly. Next month the office will be crowded with the late tax payers, and all property owners are requested to pay their taxes this month if possible.

Attractions in a city were too much for Bertha Vance, 16 years old, colored, to leave and when she came to Paducah from her country home in Ballard county August 3 she stayed. Her father, Frank Vance, asked the police to watch out for her, and yesterday afternoon she was taken in charge by the police, who had her description and a sample of her hand dress Vance had given them. Vance was notified and came here last night and took Bertha back home.

Man, Who Captured Assailant of Gaynor, Threatened With Death in Anonymous Communication Today

Victim of Would-be Assassin is Recovering—Jersey Justice Will be Meted Out to Gallagher.

New York, Aug. 10.—Phil Edwards, who yesterday overpowered Mayor Gaynor's assailant, James Gallagher, received a letter today, threatening his life. It was signed "A Friend of Gallagher." Edwards ignored the note.

New York, Aug. 10.—"Jersey justice" will avenge the shooting of Mayor Gaynor. The proverbial rapidity with which criminals are punished in New Jersey, will be observed in the case of James J. Gallagher and unless the mayor becomes wiser, his assailant may be tried and convicted of assault and battery with intent to kill next week. The condition of the mayor is distinctly favorable today. Gaynor had taken nourishment and seemed cheerful, when his wife visited him this morning.

In a bulletin issued today the doctors declared the mayor's condition favorable. The physicians also decided today not to remove the bullet, fearing the loss of blood. The X-ray examination showed the bullet to have struck the right jaw bone, splitting it in two pieces, but the condition will not be dangerous, unless infection develops. The grand jury started its examination, seeking an indictment against Gallagher today.

The physicians have definitely decided there will be no operation. Mrs. Gaynor and the nurses are in constant attendance on the Mayor and the physicians say his temperature has been normal. Gallagher, who was attacked by a crank, his son and brother were allowed to see him at noon, for a moment.

"I am feeling fine and hope I shall soon be up and about," the mayor told them.

Gallagher, in the Hudson county jail, in Jersey City, was morose and bitter this morning.

Papers Express Regret.

New York, Aug. 10.—The papers here express deep regret over the shooting of Mayor Gaynor. The World says, "If painful death awaits the hero of a memorable onslaught against hereditary abuses, there should be in the American Republic enough old time 'fire' to demand explanation."

Ice Wagon Gongs Are Taken For Old Brass

Brass thieves turned their attention to a new avenue for their operations last night when thirteen ice wagon gongs were reported missing this morning to the police department by two local ice dealers.

The Paducah Ice company and the Flowers & Wagner ice company are the losers of gongs valued at over $50. Thieves who worked quietly and without striking the gongs entered the stables of Flowers & Wagner, Second and Tennessee streets, removing gongs from six wagons. The gongs were valued at between $3 and $4. At the property of the Paducah Ice company on South Third street, the same thieves, it is believed, removed the gongs from seven wagons. These were worth $4.25 each.

It was first thought that the theft of the bells was by some person, who was opposed to the ringing of gongs early in the morning; but it was learned later that these two companies are the only dealers whose wagons are equipped with brass gongs. The police are conducting a vigorous search for the robbers.

UNCLE SAM PROTESTS.

Must Stop Invasion American Property in Nicaragua.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Invasion of American property in Nicaragua by soldiers of Madrid has called forth a formal protest from the United States. The state department has repeated its ultimatum to both factions in Nicaragua, that American property must be protected. The situation of the Madrid government is precarious, according to state department reports.

SPACE FOR FALL FAIR IS BEING SECURED BY MANY EXHIBITORS.

Merchants of Paducah who intend to secure spaces at the West End fair grounds for the annual fair during September and October must make applications at once, as only a part of the 16 spaces to be let are left. The Paducah Light & Power company and the Alex. Kulp Buggy company have been granted spaces to make exhibits and already 10 have been secured by poultry raisers to make exhibits in the announcement that the M. J. Yopp Seed company will supply all the coops for poultry and those who have no coops will receive them on application. Mr. Yopp will also furnish free of charge all of the feed for the poultry on display.

CREAGER DENIES HAMON'S CHARGE

OKLAHOMA CONGRESSMAN SAYS HE DID NOT SOLICIT BRIBE OF $1,000.

McAlester, Okla., Aug. 10.—Jake Hamon, testifying today before the congressional committee, investigating Gore's charges, said that Congressman Creager, of Oklahoma, made what he considered a direct request of J. S. McMurray for one thousand dollars in Washington last June, but that McMurray did not comply, telling Hamon he could not afford to give legislators money.

Hamon said Creager told McMurray he needed that much money for his campaign. Creager denied making such a request. He also denied that he and Gore had entered a political deal, whereby Gore was to support him for congress if he testified, as he has done before the committee.

SCHOOL AND FARM SUBJECT BEFORE TEACHERS TODAY

How Can Curriculum Encourage Scientific Methods of Agriculture.

Interesting Discussions on Problem.

INSTITUTE GROWS IN INTEREST.

It is practically certain that the McCracken County Teachers' institute, which is in annual session at the court house, will go on record as favoring the teaching of agriculture in the rural schools. The institute is powerless to adopt the study for the schools, but will recommend to the school board that the study of agriculture be introduced in the county schools. The committee on resolutions, which is composed of Charles Ferguson, Edward M. Finley and Miss Ruby Knott, is considering the resolutions. The committee will report Friday afternoon, and it is expected that the resolution will be presented to the teachers.

An able address was delivered this morning by Prof. W. H. Sugg, principal of the city high school, on "Agriculture Interests to the Boys and Girls of the Rural Schools." Professor Sugg has made a study of the subject and gave a practical address on the subject, which is a live one among the school officials.

The third day of the institute was even more enjoyable than the first two days. The pleasant weather has done much to make the institute a success, as the teachers are able to listen carefully to all of the papers and discussions without fatigue. The institute has not been without its social side. A piano is in the court room for the opening exercises, and to accompany the songs. This afternoon the county officials entertained with ice cream and cake. Refreshments were on hand in plentiful quantities, and the teachers enjoyed the treat.

At this morning's session Prof. J. A. Carnegie, superintendent of the city schools, delivered an excellent talk on "School Text Books." The question of text books is a problem to the rural school teacher, and enlightenment on many points were received from the address. The instructor, Prof. C. W. Richards, delivered a talk on "Sociological Education," which was profitable.

The program was carried out today as outlined. This afternoon Mrs. George Flournoy, who is a member of the state library commission, delivered a talk on "District Libraries Amid the Public Schools." Mrs. Flournoy is a member of the state library commission which has just taken up the work of establishing libraries in the rural schools.

Musical Program. Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Broadway Methodist church the teachers who are attending the institute will be the guests at a musical program. Anybody interested in educational work will be welcome. The program is:

Song—America. Prayer—The Rev. G. W. Banks. Instrumental solo—Miss Mary Scott. Solo—Miss Lynette Soule accompanied by Miss Rosa Sullivan. Address—Prof. C. W. Richards.

WOODRING WILL BE BACK IN GAME

HIS SUSPENSION WILL SPEEDILY TERMINATE—OLD PADUKE CATCHER HEARD FROM.

It is said the suspension against Guy Woodring will be lifted this week and the little twirler will work in the box next Sunday against Harrisburg. Woodring was fined $10 and put on the bench for 30 days for failing to report in uniform recently. It is said the directors considered the fine too heavy, and think he has been punished enough. Woodring is a clever pitcher and wins a majority of his games. R. M. Blakemore, who caught for Paducah in the old Killy, wants a job with the Indiana. Blakemore is doing hack-slop duty in southern Alabama now, but says the malaria bothers him, and he is seeking another climate. With Overton and Block to serve as catchers, the Paducah management can not see how they can use Blakemore.

It should be said in explanation of the remarkable progress made by Pythagoras lodge in so short a time that a large share of the credit is due to the splendid efforts of those members of Paducah lodge, No. 26, who assisted in installing and organizing our new lodge. Especially would Pythagoras lodge wish to recognize the work of Brothers Palmer, Stein, Moore, Grasty, Duke and Barkadale.

VATICAN SEEKING PEACEFUL END TO UNPLEASANTNESS

Overtures to This Effect Said to Be Considered By Merry Del Val.

Members of Press in Spain Get Theirs.

ALFONSO WIRES TO PREMIER

Rome, Aug. 10.—It was reported today that Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, is trying through official, semi-official and private channels to reach an understanding with the Spanish government.

It is believed that the next note from the Vatican will announce an agreement or a definite rupture between Rome and Madrid.

A good omen was found today in the presence of the Marquis de Gonzalez, the Spanish charge d'affaires, to the Vatican and the staff of the Spanish embassy at the many celebrated by Cardinal Merry del Val in honor of the anniversary of the coronation of Pope Pius X.

In view of the strained relations between the holy see and Spain, the decision of the Spanish representatives to be present at the morning function, or to absent themselves was awaited with great interest.

Cite Catholic Editors.

Madrid, Aug. 10.—King Alfonso, who is visiting England, telegraphed Premier Canalejas expressing his satisfaction that trouble at San Sebastian on Sunday had been avoided. The government has decided to allow the Catholic junta, which are being formed throughout Spain, to continue in existence so long as they keep within the bounds of legality. Arrangements are being made for a big anti-government demonstration at Murcia.

The publishers of several Catholic papers have been cited to appear in court for having stated that the premier advised the king to renounce the title of "Catholic King."

Say Vatican Will Recede.

Paris, Aug. 10.—The Echo de Paris prints from its correspondent at Madrid an optimistic interview with Garcia Prieto, the Spanish minister for foreign affairs, in which he intimates that the Vatican is likely to abandon his present attitude and resume negotiations with Spain for the revision of the concordate. The minister said, however, that he was ignorant of the fact if Cardinal Vives y Tuto, as reported, has made intercession with King Alfonso.

To the question: "Is the separation of the church and state the ultimate aim of the Spanish government?" Senor Prieto replied: "We have not reached that point yet. Catholic Spain does not desire separation, and Rome knows it."

Catholic Editors Protest.

San Sebastian, Aug. 10.—Ten Catholic senators and deputies telegraphed Premier Canalejas protesting against what they described as the government violence and abuses towards the Catholics who desired to participate in "the magnificent movement in protestation against the government's anti-Catholic policy."

The signers of the message notify the premier that they will call him to account before the cortex.

"Dummy" Payne, who has been a star for the Indians on the road, was in the box for the visitors. Hooks Go to Murray.

The B. H. Hooks baseball club, of Paducah, left this afternoon for Murray, where they will cross bats with the Murray team at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon. The battery for the locals will be Woods and Wagner, for Murray, Cutchins and Hayes. The Murray club is thought to have several decent players in its lineup. The Hooks baseball team will go to Marion, Ill., Sunday for a game with the strong team of that city.

Baseball Staff.

Cy Lambert, the hard hitting outfielder and pitcher of the Clarksville team has been given his release. Lambert led the league in hitting at the close of the first season.

Vincennes fans are kicking on the work of Fish behind the bat. Fish has always impressed the Paducah fans as one of the neatest little backstops in the league, although the Alice fans say he is not putting up the game he did at the first of the season.

Leo Angermeyer, the star catcher of the Bluegrass league, and the kid brother of Louis Angermeyer, manager of the Indians, has been sold by Frankfort to the Chicago Cubs. All of the papers on the Blue Grass give Angermeyer credit for being a good steady catcher with the ability to swat the ball. Angermeyer will report to Frank Chance next spring for a tryout.

Cleveland, Aug. 10.—Cleveland and Washington broke even. Relieving was hit hard in the initial contest, while Young allowed but three hits prior to the ninth. Otzy, a left-handed recruit from Norfolk, finished strong for Washington. The second game was played in the rain, but both pitchers were effective. ONSHED BEING CAIR.

N. C. & St. L. Railroad Employee Meets with Horrible Death.

Lexington, Tenn., Aug. 10.—About 2:03 o'clock Monday morning while switching on the lower end of the yards of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad company, B. F. Hooper was the victim of a most horrible accident. While riding on the steps of a moving car, not knowing that the other cars on a nearby switch were not in the clear, his body was pinned in between the cars and crushed to pieces, death resulting after about three hours of suffering.

The mutilated body was carried to his residence and a physician summoned, but he could be of little service, as it was evident death would inevitably ensue. Mr. Hooper was about 42 years old and one of the best employees on the road. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral occurred Monday afternoon in the Lexington cemetery with Masonic honors.

HITS AUTO

ENTIRE PARTY OF PLEASURE SEEKERS IS WIPED OUT.

Grandfield Abstracts Chauffeur's View of Rapidly Approaching Pennsylvania Express.

Cape May, N. J., Aug. 10.—Five persons were crushed to death when an express train on the Pennsylvania railroad dashed into an automobile at Mill Lane crossing on the West Jersey and Sea Shore railroad. The dead:

FREDERICK W. FELDNER and wife.

FRITZ MERGENTHALER and wife.

M. C. JONES, chauffeur, all of Hattiesburg.

Mergenthaler was the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Feldner.

The party had been spending a few days in Atlantic City and left for an automobile trip to Cape May.

As they approached the tracks, the fast running express was hidden from view by a corn field, and it was impossible for the chauffeur to see the train until he was within a few feet of the tracks.

The express struck the automobile squarely between the wheels and threw it and all of the occupants clear of the tracks. All five of the riders were instantly killed. Coroner Reeves reached the scene a few minutes after the accident occurred. He took charge of the five bodies and had them brought to his morgue in this city.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Aug. 10.—The receipts of hogs were only 536 head, making a total of 1,643 for the two days this week. The market opened early with prices ranging from steady to a dime higher; selected heavy hogs, 200 lbs. and up, $8.60; medium, 165 to 200 lbs., $8.50; lights and good pigs, 90 to 165 lbs., $9.00; light pigs, $8.00; roughs, $7.85 down. The pens were well cleared and the market closed full steady.

CATTLE.

The fresh receipts of cattle were only 84 head, or 1,383 for the two days this week. The buying crowd was small and purely local, the demand rather limited, and the market quiet from start to finish, with little or no variation in values. There was some demand for prime butcher cattle of handy weights, while other kinds were slow sellers, grassers especially dull. The feeder and stocker market was just about steady, not enough of the best feeders and stockers coming to supply the demand. Good bulls, steady; common bulls and canners, dull; Milch cows, slow. No prime heavy steers on sale, the feeling on that class was about steady. Sales include some late sales.

Calves.

Receipts 146, for the two days 347. The market ruled slow, about steady, bulk of the best 6 1/2 to 7 c. Some few fancy shade higher, medium 5 1/2 to 6 1/2 c, common 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 c.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts 2,420, for the two days 9,861 head. The quality of the lambs here was considerable better but the market was slow, in fact, no sales were made up to the time of going to press, sellers asking steady prices and buyers bidding some lower, the indications are, however, that the top lambs will sell somewhere from 6 1/2 c to 6 3/4 c, seconds 5 c to 5 1/2 c, culls 3 to 4 1/2 c, fat sheep 2 1/2 c down, common sheep 2 c down. Prime western stock ewes 5 to 6 c, good to choice natives 4 to 5 c. Common and trashy ewes very slow sale.

St. Louis, Aug. 10.—Cattle—Receipts, 6,000; market steady. Native best steers, $5.75 to $5.25; calves, in carload lots, $6.00 to $5.50. Hogs—Receipts, 9,000; market 5 c lower. Pigs and lights, $5.00 to $5.25; packers, $7.50 to $8.50; butchers and best heavy, $8.25 to $8.75. Sheep—Receipts 11,500; market steady to lower. Native muttons, $3.75 to $4.25; lambs, $5.75 to $6.00.

NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES.

Former Associate Justice P. S. Supreme Court, Dates to Case.

The Hague, Aug. 9.—Henry H. Brown, former associate justice of the United States supreme court who retired in 1906, was an interested listener today to the proceedings in the Newfoundland fisheries case before the arbitration tribunal. He was given a seat beside the members of the court.

Senator Root, continuing his argument up for the Americans, argued that neither the 1783 of 1818 did regulations exist regarding the time and the methods according to which the fisheries should be conducted off Labrador and Newfoundland, and that the negotiations for the already of 1818, the negotiations were actuated by the understanding that Newfoundland could not frame regulations for the fisheries except in co-operation with the United States.

MECHANICSBURG WORK HELD UP

PENDING INQUIRY AS TO PREVIOUS IMPROVEMENTS.

Ordinances Provide That Property Owners Pay—Attorneys Say Not.

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Rather than involve the city, the contractor or the property owners in any litigation, the board of public works, at a called meeting yesterday afternoon, did not open bids for the improvement of several streets in Mechanicsburg. The improvement of all the streets was included in one ordinance, and a protest from property owners on Powell street between Clements and Jarrett street, asserting that they had paid for the grading of the street once, and giving notice to the board that they would resist the payment of the cost, was received. As the best means of avoiding trouble the board referred the ordinance back to the council with the recommendation that new ordinances covering each street separately be brought in. There was some doubt about the abutting property owners being unable to avoid paying their apportionment of the cost of the construction, but attorneys they had consulted said that the city could not collect twice for grading of the several squares on Powell street. Several contractors heard of the threatened trouble and did not bid upon the work, fearing the expense of the litigation to secure their money. In addition the members thought that the city might have to pay the cost of the grading in the end, and considered it wise to refer the entire ordinance back to the council.

The ordinance provides for the improvement of Volmer avenue, Thurman street, Ashcraft avenue and Powell street from Clements street to the Illinois Central railroad tracks by grading and graveling. About seven years ago the abutting property owners on Powell street between Clements and Jarrett street, which is three squares, say that they paid for the grading of the street, and gave notice to the board that they would refuse to pay the cost again. City Engineer Washington said that it would be absolutely necessary to grade the street again before placing the gravel.

As a result of this the beginning of the improvements will be delayed as it will be necessary for the general council to order new and separate ordinances for the streets drafted. It will require a month to pass the ordinance, and it will be fall before the work can be let and the contractor begin the work.

Faxon Avenue.
The contract for grading and graveling Faxon avenue between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets was awarded to J. E. Jones for 55 cents a linear foot on each side of the street. Torinn & Potter bid $1.10 a foot for both sides which was a tie with Contractor Jones. It is a question of the quality of the gravel to decide which contractor should receive the contract. Upon recommendation of the fine quality of gravel that has been furnished the city by Mr. Jones, he was awarded the contract. W. L. Yance as the third bidder with a bid of 57 cents a foot.

It was a called session yesterday afternoon and no other business was considered. Those present were: President Richard Rudy; Secretary Louis Kolb, and Mr. Finis Lack.

Why Is Sugar Sweet?
If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. PROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. PIE-EATING POPULAR.
At Least It Will Be If Lieut. Roesch's Example Is Known.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Pie-eating contests are expected to become popular at the naval academy at Annapolis. Midshipman H. O. Roesch, who escaped a court-martial for referring one, has been assigned to the new dreadnought Delaware.

When Roesch umpired the contest Superintendent Bowyer wanted him court-martialed. The navy department held that the thing was too trivial for official notice as Roesch had merely supervised it and it was not attempt at hazing. His graduation, which was being held up, was immediately allowed and his appointment to the biggest battleship of the navy followed today. Roesch is the crack rifle shot of the American army and navy.

ANOTHER DAY FOR FAVORITES

IN ONLY ONE RACE WERE FORECASTS UPSET.

Memphis Horse Wins—Fuzz Johnson Beat Dora, Foreign Bred Trotter, In Concluding Race.

GEERS DRIVES TO VICTORY.

Cleveland, Aug. 10.—The favorites had another good day in the Grand Circuit races. In only one event were the forecasts upset. That was in the concluding race, when Fuzz Johnson, driven by Frank Jones, of Memphis, beat Louis W. Whinn's chestnut mare, Dora, after a hard struggle. Dora looked an easy winner in the first heat, but broke at the stretch. She won the second heat, but broke again in the third when she again had a fine chance to land the first money.

The 3,000 Edwards Stake went to The Abbe, Geers got the Abbe away in third place in the first heat and at the three-quarters pole had him battling with Evelyn W., passing her a few yards from the wire in a driving finish. The time 2:04 flat, a new mark for the Abbe, who made 2:04 1/2 at Detroit last week.

The second heat developed into even a hotter battle. A blanket would have covered The Abbe, Evelyn W., and Irlanhan Baughman as they passed under the wire in the order named. The Abbe was never headed in the final heat.

Earl Jr., let W. D. S. set the pace to the three-quarters pole in the first heat of the 2:10 pace, and then took the lead handily, finishing an easy winner. In the next two heats Cox kept Earl Jr., ahead of the field the entire distance.

Country Jay kept up his great record at Kalamazoo and Detroit, by jogging home easy a victor of the 2:08 trot.

Lou Billings, three year old trot-

ENGINE BOUGHT
BY BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS FOR LIGHTING PLANT.

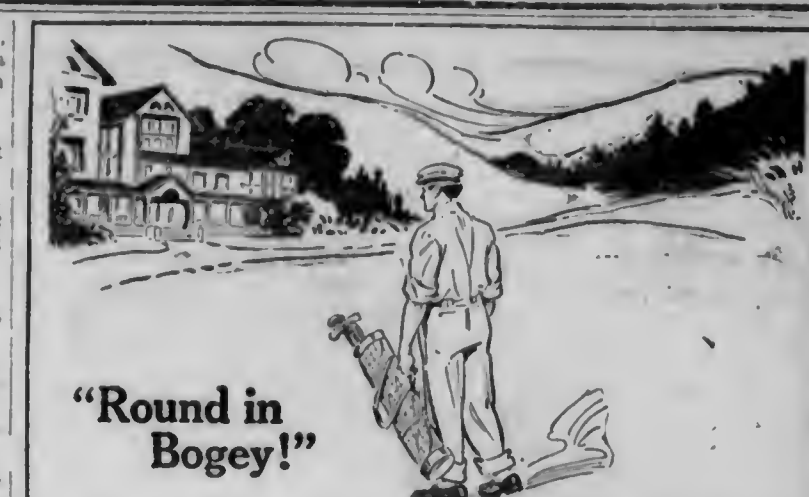

Purchase Price of Hamilton, O., Engine Is $4,600—the Terms.

Four firms submitted bids on the new engine for the city light plant yesterday afternoon at the board of public works meeting. The bids ranged from $4,150 to $4,775, and in order to consider the points and advantages of every engine, Mr. F. E. Lack, of the board and W. H. Force, superintendent of the city light plant, were appointed a committee to investigate the bids. The committee will report to the board at the next meeting, and the board will then recommend to the general council which engine to purchase for the light plant.

The bids submitted are: Murray Iron Works company, of Burlington, Ia., $4,150; Hoover, Owen & Bent-schler company, of Hamilton, O., $4,600; C. & G. Cooper of Mt. Vernon, O., $4,775. All of the above bids were on the terms of $1,000 cash, one-half balance in February, 1911; and one-half balance in June, 1911. The fourth bid was Harde-Times Manufacturing company, of Birmingham, Ala., $4,400 on the terms of one-half balance on completion.

It is the intention of the members of the board of public works to secure an absolutely reliable engine for the city, and the most substantial for the most reasonable expense to the city. The new engine is badly needed at the light plant as the present engine is carrying a heavy load much beyond its capacity, and in case of a breakdown the city might be in darkness for many weeks. The bids received were for installing the engine by the companies, and have it accepted by the city after a trial run.

The committee will recommend this Hamilton, O., engine at $4,600.

CHILDREN'S ILLS IN SUMMER

The hardest period of a child's life is during the heated term. It is then that the little men and women become so subject to stomach and bowel troubles. With one it manifests itself in the form of obstinate constipation, with another the very reverse—diarrhea. One is as bad as the other. Constipation makes the child lose appetite and sleep, makes it languid and sickly-looking. Diarrhea weakens it and destroys appetite and energy. Piles, pimples, eruptions, itch, worms, etc., follow in the train until many a mother feels that her child is indeed very ill. But these are all troubles that can be easily cured. The child needs a few doses of a remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the grand laxative and tonic. Parents can make no possible mistake by giving it Syrup Pepsin, as the chances are always in favor of the child needing a laxative. It is sold in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00, and any druggist can supply you. It cannot be mentioned too strongly that parents should look closely after the welfare of the children during the hot months. If you would like to try it before buying send your address for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE to

Who are the people? Those who are in the majority and do things, or those who are in the minority and criticize them?

Detective Carney should not be surprised at the dilatory tactics of Joseph Wendling. Think how long he delayed leaving Louisville while the detectives were searching for a clew.

The ice cream cones had to be banished by the board of health, and the ice wagon gongs had to be removed by violence and cunning; but the ten cent ice cake is dwindling day by day. Pretty soon the ten cent cake and the five cent cake will be the same size. Then we can save money by taking the nickel cake.

We cannot accept as final the morning paper's denial of County Attorney Clay's interview in The Evening Sun, especially the assertion that he said "the grand jury of its own motion can do nothing." Mr. Clay is quite an intelligent young attorney, and anyone would be an ass to make an assertion like that.

Clarence Nixon, of Evansville, Ind., who, according to the vivid account of a veracious scribe of that city, is suffering from a bite inflicted by a "mother mule," has proven the eminent faunal naturalist, Josh Billings, to be a nature faker when he asserted that the "mule is without pride of ancestry or hope of posterity."

The Calloway Times asks what "in thunder did the prison commission need with an employment agent?" For the employment of Mott Ayres, of course. But seriously Mott is so used to getting political jobs for people, that we fear he'll make the next legislature create an office for every paroled prisoner in Kentucky.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

The relationship of our public schools to contemporary life is the vital point of contact in the supreme question of all time, the preparation of youth for citizenship. Our public schools are maintained for no other purpose, and the inquiry as to the value which the taxpayers are receiving from this investment must

THE PLOT THICKENS

So, the newspaper, which loudly proclaims that "the province of a newspaper is to give the news, first, last and all the time"; coolly informs an expectant public this morning that "so far as to the further developments in the case, the News-Democrat is not in a position to speak because they have not reached a stage of development sufficient to be made public."

May we infer that our morning contemporary has inside information, which it is withholding from the public? Is it possible that it is acquainted with the identity of these "mysterious strangers", who have hired Dick Lightfoot to prosecute? Is there some connection between its assurance that "the story did not originate with the News-Democrat" and the admission of Attorney Hal Corbett that the only prosecution he knows of was that someone asked him if he "would take a fee to prosecute Mayor Smith"? Were we getting warm when we associated the interest the News-Democrat evinced in digging up partial records with the interest Dick Lightfoot's "mysterious strangers" displayed in offering to invest money to prosecute Mayor Smith? Was there any relation between a News-Democrat representative first presenting the charges to County Attorney Clay and the "mysterious stranger" offering a fee to Hal Corbett and Judge Lightfoot? How did the News-Democrat learn that someone had offered to employ these attorneys? Does Hal Corbett go about telling newspapermen when clients offer to employ him on a mission he considers beneath him? Does Dick Lightfoot, who thought The Evening Sun impertinent in asking him the names of his client, tell the News-Democrat reporters when he has accepted employment in a matter which is not to the professional liking of Mr. Corbett? Or did the News-Democrat know about these clients before the attorneys were approached on the subject?

The adoration to the public to remain patient until the News-Democrat gets ready to divulge its secrets, was gratuitous this morning. All the patient people asked was that it tell the truth so far as the matter has become public; but since it has acknowledged that it possesses further information, it is pertinent to inquire how it reconciles its professed disinterestedness and policy of giving "the news, first, last and all the time", with such naive reticence. Has it suddenly, but too late, revealed the words of the Preacher: "There is a time to be silent and a time to speak"; or does it consider this case one, which comes within its own editorial expression of March 8, 1910: "The value and usefulness of a newspaper is often more forebore through things it leaves unsaid than things it publishes?"

Suspecting the relationship existing between the News-Democrat and the "mysterious prosecutors", we admit the foreboreness of the "value and usefulness" of the News-Democrat to them through things left unsaid as to future developments.

This admission of further information revives interest in its expense for publishing the charges which it dug up at the city hall and presented to the county attorney, against men of whom it says: "They are highly respected, honorable and upright men" and "we cannot feel that any act done on their part was committed with a desire to defraud the city or transgress the law" and that the "city lost nothing by the transactions."

Here were perfectly innocent men—nay, "highly respected, honorable upright men", innocent of any wrong intention, engaged in nothing that lost the city a penny, not under any charges, as the county attorney avers; and, yet the morning paper prints accusations, which reflect on their moral character, brand them abroad as grafters; this without allowing them the opportunity to explain the circumstances, and without publishing facts, which, instead of discrediting them, would reveal them as scrupulously abstaining from the things charged against them.

Its specific denial this morning that it bore any ill-will toward Mayor Smith is given the lie by the parting fling, "he made no great effort to sell the property in question to the city." Possibly to the sophists of the News-Democrat the difference between half a lie and a whole lie is half the truth; but if they will look at their files for May, 1908, (and if they haven't them we will loan them ours) they will find there a story about the first deed ever made by James P. Smith or his father, and turning to Council Proceedings, folio 562 and 563, they will find a unanimous resolution "requesting the mayor to sell property he controls in Block 66."

These truths, showing the malicious, malevolent nature of the scribe, in connection with its statement that it is withholding information in its possession; the fact that the News-Democrat dug up the charges and presented them to the county attorney, and its refusal to publish the names of all the men implicated and the real facts about the others, indicate a hidden motive other than "to give the news, first, last and all the time."

always revolve around the manner in which it is preparing the youths of the land to meet the obligations, bound to fall upon them, when their fathers relinquish the burden to them. This question of citizenship takes a wide range, and in a Democracy, in which all citizens are sovereign, it includes every social and economical relationship.

Not the least of the problems which affect a free people is that of food supply. Its cheapness, quality and quantity. Do our schools prepare men and women for the important duty of producing that upon which the nation must live, or do they only benefit those, who aspire to the non-producing activities of our complicated urban civilization?

While science has been making wonderful strides, the boys and girls have been lured from the farm to the city; and at this era of vast knowledge of chemistry, botany and biology, we find our food supply threatened by the failure of production to keep pace with the growth of population.

There is a call back to the farm. It again becomes profitable and attractive; but the requirements are more than a greater number of farmers or even a greater number of acres. Greater productivity to the acre is demanded, and science has turned its attention to agriculture. It may not be generally known that today, scientific agriculture offers more lucrative openings for talented young men than any other profession.

The McCracken County Teachers'

association is studying practical methods by which schools, city and rural, may stimulate interest in scientific farming, as a means of adding to the wealth of the state. One prominent expert connected with the state experiment station is authority for the statement that an increase of five bushels of corn to the acre would add $12,000,000 annually to the income of Kentucky farmers, and declares that this can be done by proper seed selection and the proper preparation of the ground. Isn't this important enough to interest the people of the state?

POWER BOAT OF CONCRETE NOW BEING CONSTRUCTED

Cincinnati, O.—(Special).—What probably will be the first boat built of concrete navigating by its own power will soon be constructed in this city for use on the Miami and Erie canal during the Ohio Valley Exposition, which opens Aug. 29 and closes Sept. 24. This boat will be built on plans devised on information received from the United States War Department in regard to the construction of barges of concrete for use on the Panama canal work. It has been found that barges of this kind can be constructed more economically than wooden barges, and that they are just as easily handled as ordinary barges, with the advantage that they can be more readily cleaned of sea parasites than wooden barges. The method of construction is similar to that employed in erecting concrete buildings, in that the concrete is spread over wire framework, making a perfectly rigid and waterproof surface throughout.

It is planned to utilize this boat to tow pleasure barges, also constructed of concrete, on the canal during the Exposition, the barges to be brilliantly illuminated and each supplied with musicians, a sort of continuous water carnival being thus inaugurated, the beauty of which will be augmented of the canal and brilliant illumination.

AMERICAN RIGHTS ABSOLUTE.

Agreement Near in Newfoundland Fisheries Dispute.

The Hague, Aug. 10.—Senator Elihu Root, counsel for the United States before the arbitration tribunal, devoted today to an exhaustive argument, in which he maintained the rights of Americans in the Newfoundland fisheries were unlimited and absolute, as had been admitted by Lord Bathurst, Malinesbury and Salisbury. The senator expressed confidence that the court would decide that the English colonial laws on the subject of the Newfoundland fisheries were ineffective, so far as Americans were concerned without the consent of the United States. The way would then be cleared, he said, for the regulation of the fisheries by mutual agreement between the United States and Great Britain.

FUNDS FOR STATE CAPITOL.

Citizens of Oklahoma City Offer $250,000,000 Cash.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Aug. 10.—A cash offer of $250,000,000 as a fund with which to erect the permanent state capitol of the state was made to the state through Gov. Haskell by a committee of citizens headed by C. I. Jones. The offer is backed by the number of commerce and involves the purchase by the state of a section of school lands two miles north of the city by a development company which the committee proposes to organize.

The land is to be platted and sold by the company with the exception of 20 acres to be devoted to the state bond of $500,000 to be held the land and $2,000,000 is to be delivered to the state capitol commission with which to erect the capitol. Should his proposition be accepted the state would be relieved from engaging in the real estate business as was contemplated in the net providing for the permanent location of the state capitol here.

"Sons Club" Refused Charter.

New York, Aug. 10.—A New York court has refused a certificate of incorporation to the "Sons Club," a social organization of wealthy New Yorkers, that the club was organized "for social, literary and athletic purposes and for mutual improvements. But the court could not understand how a club adopting for its name the colloquial term of "sons" could operate for mutual improvement and accordingly wrote on the petition the word "denied," on the ground that such a name would be against public policy.

SOUTH'S CORN EXHIBIT WILL CREATE FURORE

One of the Big Features of the Ohio Valley Exposition.

Cincinnati, O.—(Special).—The general impression that the Middle West has a monopoly on the raising of corn promises to receive its quietus at the Ohio Valley Exposition, to be held in Cincinnati from Aug. 29 to Sept. 24. In assembling the industrial, products and resources which will make up the Southern exhibit at the exposition, the representatives of the various railroads in the South are giving particular attention to securing examples of the South's natural wealth of which the outside world knows little or nothing. And working along this plan, special efforts are being made to secure a large and classy exhibit of corn grown in various sections of Dixie.

With the idea of impressing visitors to the Exposition that the South will grow anything that any other section can produce, and in just as high quality. For some years the matter of experimenting with the growing of corn has been progressing in the South, with the result that experts now boldly announce that with proper application and the employment of up-to-date methods of cultivation, the South can be made the greatest corn-producing section of America.

Reports from the Department of Agriculture in Washington give interesting figures on this experimental work. In South Carolina a boy, devoting all his time and knowledge to corn raising and cultivation, succeeded in raising 1524 bushels to the acre in a section where the average yield was but 16 bushels per acre. In Virginia nearly 1,000 acres were planted and cultivated under improved methods, with the result that an average yield of 41 bushels per acre was secured. In Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas similar good results have been obtained by scientific cultivation, so that it is a reasonable estimate to make that 45 bushels to the acre can be secured with proper care and attention. Many cotton planters are turning to other staples as a part of their annual crops because of the blighting work of the cotton boll weevil, and those who have taken up the growing of corn are finding that it promises more than any other product. The display of Southern grown corn at the Ohio Valley Exposition promises to be comprehensive and of excellent quality, and those assembling this exhibit declare that it will compare in every way with the best examples that will be offered by growers of the Ohio Valley or the prairie states.

Future of Iron Mining.

We think and speak today as if deposits of ore could in the nature of things be worked only to a very moderate depth, a few thousand feet. But this is an error. What is true is that the cost of working increases rapidly with the depth at which the work is carried on, so that at any given time the profitable depths of working is limited by the competition, let ore from shallower mines. But, like the richness which makes an ore profitable, the profitable working depth is purely a question of demand and supply. The whole crust of the earth is ours. We will first take the richest ore, those in the largest masses, and those nearest the surface—in short the most profitable ores—but we shall later, take poorer and deeper ones. To this process there is hardly a limit.

Thus it is not a real "famine" that awaits us, but only the need of mining at greater depths and of handling more tons of ore and barren rock for each ton of metallic iron read for man's use. This handling will in general have to include crushing the ore, and separating, by mechanical process, its scattered particles of minerals rich in iron from the great mass of barren minerals with which they are usually mixed.—Atlantic.

TAFT TO HALVE WORK AND PLAY

ADMINISTRATION PLANS OCCUPY ATTENTION.

Chief Executive Will Receive Visitors
on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

PLANS THREE WORKING DAYS.

Reverly, Mass., Aug. 10.—President Taft has devised a plan for dividing his work and play during the remainder of his vacation period and announced today that in the future
he will receive visitors by appointment on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, reserving the other days for recreation and seclusion with his family.

The administration's economy plans are occupying a good deal of the president's time and he has invited a number of city fiscal experts to come to Reverly for conferences.

Postmaster General Hitchcock saw the president this afternoon regarding postal savings banks.

The president appointed ten delegates to the thirteenth annual American mining congress to be held in Los Angeles September 26 to October 1, one of whom is John Hays Hammond, of New York.

Sought Money; Got 30 Cents.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—"I asked the Colored Preachers' Alliance of Washington for money to aid the Arkansas Baptist college at Little Rock, which has done so much to help educate the negroes of the country, and they gave me 30 cents."

"If this is a measure of the sympathy felt by the negroes of the north for the negroes of the south, I say they had better attend to their own business instead of sending telegrams to governors and sheriffs of the southern states expressing their indignation at the lynching of negroes. Their resolutions of sympathy are meaningless to us."

This statement was made by W. E.
Stewart, financial agent of the Arkansas Baptist college, who recently came to Washington to attend the memorial services for the late Dr.
George V. Lee, pastor of the Vermont Avenue church. He said that he attended the meeting of the preachers' alliance last week and was called upon to make an address.

"I told them of many friends
among the white people that the negroes have in the south and of our freedom there. But it seemed that the members of the alliance wished to condemn all our white friends in the south because of the outrage in Palestine, Texas. Yet we have thousands of white friends in the south
as well as the north."

"Before I asked for funds to help
the Arkansas Baptist college I presented my credentials from the Battist national convention and recommendations from Gov. George W.
Donaghey, of Arkansas, and the business league of Little Rock, but my appeal resulted in the donation of 30 cents, yet I am told that some of these preachers receive $125 a month for their services."

"I have appealed to the city pastors for a place in which to explain the real condition of the negroes of the south, and what was being done for them by the white people of the southern states. I hope to be able to deliver this address before I leave here."

Fall.

The contract for the construction of a system of sewers in Newport,

bid of the Paducah firm was $40,990
and they had a number of large southern firms as competitors. The work of construction will begin this month and will be completed as soon as possible. Mr. George A.
Gardner left early this morning for Newport to award the sub-contracts and to arrange for the starting of the work.

SECOND LEG AIR RACE IS RUN

PRETTY CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHT DUEL ENGAGED IN.

Both Aviators Use Blériot Mono-
planes and Steer by Compass, Checking Their Positions.

LE BLANC AND AUBRUN LEAD

Nancy, Aug. 10.—Le Blanc and Aubrun again led the van on yesterday's leg of the cross-country aeroplane race. The second section of the flight was from Troyes to Nancy, a distance of 165 kilometers, or approximately 102 5-10 miles.

The race between the leaders was an exciting one. Aubrun started five minutes earlier than Le Blanc, and the men were within sight of each other until they landed here.

Le Blanc's machine proved the swifter and he gradually forged ahead of the other, reaching the goal 30 seconds ahead of his rival.

Both men used Blériot mono-planes and steered by compass, checking their positions from the flags which had been pinned on the church steeples in the villages over which they passed and by the smoke of bonfires that marked the course over the country stretches.

The circuit which the contestants must cover in six stages is 488 miles and extends from Paris to Troyes, Nancy, Reims, Charleville, Douai, Amiens and back to Paris.
$20,000 in Prizes.

Twenty thousand dollars is offered for the aviator who makes the distance in the shortest elapsed time.

Le Blanc covered the first leg from the aviation field at Issy les Moulineux to Troyes, about 84 miles, in one hour thirty-three minutes and twenty seconds. Aubrun's time for the distance was one hour, thirty-seven minutes and twenty-five seconds.

Shaken in Air Eddies.

Both Le Blanc and Aubrun traveled at an average height of about 1,600 feet. They were badly shaken in the air eddies over the forest of Toul, west of this city. Le Blanc's time was 2 hours, 14 minutes and 59 seconds, and Aubrun's was 2 hours, 20 minutes and 29 seconds.

M. Legagneux was the only other contestant who arrived here without having made a stop.

Alfred Le Blanc was elected to represent France in the international balloon race in the United States this fall.

The international balloon race will start from St. Louis on October 17. Le Blanc represented France in the race from the same city in 1907 and finished second. He landed at Hertschville, N. J., after covering a distance of 867.4 miles.

HANNAN CASE IS AGAIN POSTPONED

ALDERMAN FARLEY WOULD GIVE HIM FAIR PLAY.

Suggests "Persecution" as Well as Prosecution in the Situation
Before Board.

COMES AFTER THE GRAND JURY

No charges against Mayor Smith and some of the members of the general council were filed last night as had been intimated would be at the adjourned meeting of the aldermen,
when the charges against Alderman Ed D. Hannan, president of the board of aldermen, were taken up. Upon the request of Mr. Hannan's attorneys and listening to the arguments, the investigating of the charges was postponed until after the meeting of the grand jury in September.

Not a breath of the charges against the wholesale number of city officials was mentioned, although the council chamber was crowded with interested citizens, who desired to hear the developments. Two charges were preferred against Alderman Hannan by the committee. It was alleged that he entered into a conspiracy with the plumbers in bidding on the new central fire station and the city hall addition. Each job was named as a separate offense.

Attorney W. A. Berry, representing Mr. Hannan, filed a response to the charges, denying the allegations, and including a copy of the opinion
of City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., and Attorney J. C. Flournoy in reference to the legality of accepting a subcontract from the city. The statement of Mr. Hannan was also read.
Mr. Berry said that it was not the province of the aldermen to investigate a criminal charge, and asked that the investigation be postponed until after the grand jury meets in September. He stated that the request was asked because the defense
did not desire to expose its evidence.
He said that Alderman Hannan would not attempt to participate in the meetings of the board until after the meeting of the grand jury, if the request were granted.

Attorney Hal Corbett spoke in favor of granting the postponement, while Attorney R. T. Lightfoot, who is attorney for Mart Conison, is representing the committee in prosecuting the charge, urged the aldermen to take up the investigation last night.

Alderman Stewart introduced a typewritten motion that the investigation be postponed until after the September grand jury. Alderman Oehlenschlaeger seconded the motion.
Alderman Potter said he had only the kindest feelings for Mr. Hannan, but he thought that the charges should be investigated fully. Alderman Farley explained his negative vote that he thought possibly the charges were "persecution" instead of prosecution, and he wanted to give the defendant a fair opportunity to defend himself. Without putting himself in the position of white-washing the charges, Mr. Farley said he did not desire to place the commonwealth in possession of the defense of Mr. Hannan. A third reason he said was because the entire membership of the board was not present.

Alderman Ernest Lackey presided
as chairman. The vote to postpone the investigation of the charges was:
Yeas—Aldermen Farley, Oehlenschlaeger,
Stewart and Van Meter; nays—Aldermen Lackey and Potter. Alderman Hank is in Chicago.

The statement filed by Mr. Hannan to the Honorable Board of Aldermen of the city of Paducah, Ky., concerning—Some days ago reports were current upon the streets of the city of Paducah, that I am guilty of conduct in violation of my duties as a member of this honorable board. Upon being advised by my friends of these reports, I immediately called upon the honorable mayor of this city and demanded that he call for an immediate investigation of the charges, feeling as I did, that it was my duty to myself and to my constituents and also to the membership of this body to have a free, fair investigation of any charges which might be preferred against me. Conscious as I was and am now that I had done nothing in violation of my duties as a member of this board, that I had done nothing of which either my friends or myself should be ashamed, I felt no fear of the outcome; but since asking for this investigation, my enemies, not satisfied with an effort to oust me from my position as a member of this board, have gone further, and have preferred criminal charges against me, which are now pending in the McCracken circuit court. These charges are without foundation in fact or in law; but in view of the fact that they must be tried before the courts of our country, where both commonwealth and myself may invoke the processes of the courts to enforce the attendance of witnesses, where each and every charge will be subjected to the most scrutiny, I feel that I ought not to insist upon an investigation now, because I owe it to you, before I put you to the necessity of passing upon these charges, to acquit myself in the courts, where every means of investigation is simple, and upon a failure to so acquit myself, I will relieve you of any necessity of an investigation, by promptly resigning my position as a member of this board.

To my enemies I have no excuse
nor apologies to offer, to my friends
I believe that the life I have lived here in this community these past years will warrant them in concluding that I am absolute innocent of any wrong doing, and that an investigation of these matters will vindicate my good name and standing in the community. I have given the best years of my life in honest toil here in your midst. I have contributed of my time and means to the upbuilding of this, my adopted home,
and I believe, ought to be exempt from conviction of a betrayal of the trust which my people have reposed
in me by the testimony of malicious, vicious enemies, who would stop at nothing to encompass my ruin.

In response to the charge formally preferred against me before the body, I have filed an answer, in which I have set forth the written opinion of James Campbell, your city solicitor, and J. C. Flournoy, a lawyer of high standing in this community, in both of which opinions I was advised that I had a right, under the law, in good conscience and good morals, to take a contract from Mr. Dale, to do plumbing work in the fire station. As to the other charges which have been made the subject of criminal prosecution, I deny them in toto, and in due time, will expose the contemptible sources from which they emanated.

Hoping to assure you of my confidence and perfect respect for each member of this honorable body, I am, very respectfully, ED D. HANNAN.

VIRGINIA OF THE AIR A Romance Of Flying

By HERBERT QUICK

Copyright, 1909, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER IX.

THEOROS'S mind, habituated to the airy ease of an untried fath in his mastery of the air, felt the galling of reality as he walked westward from the station toward dilapidated Carson's Landing.

Seated on a stump, he sought mental adjustment before entering his house. He had had his chance with Shayne, "the prince of the powers of the air," and had thrown it away in hot words to Shayne, in a blow to Silberberg and by leaping from the tree into the unknown abyss of night. These were actualities. The broken defector of the parachute he carried proved that, as did the memory of his foolishness over Shayne's niece, now happily forever past.

Mr. Waddy's money and Mr. Craighead's telegrams saved the day.

The first three yellow dispatches had come in one delivery at Nashville, addressed to "Theodore Carson, the illustrious inventor and thaumaturge, Caro Conductor, Train 75." Theodore, the illustrious, could not accumulate the courage to ask for them, but the wise conductor had pounced suddenly upon him and said, "I reckon you're Mr. Carson."

"Yield not to temptation, fear or cold feet," the first read. "Your Uncle Fulcrum is at the helm." This was signed "The Great Unclied," with the first two words run together as "Thegreat."

In a telegraph operator's effort to reduce to the semblance of a name Mr. Craighead's nom de guerre. The second ran: "Have no fear. Monopoly is as clear in the air as on the land. Apologies to Sir Humphrey Gilbert. None to any one else by a demigod. Conqueror Shayne." This was signed "Craighead, the Legal Bloodhound."

"An old broom," ran the more mysterious next, "albeit minus one cover and dog's eared, nevertheless sweeps clean. He yokes the whirligig to our ear and sweeps the howling skies!" (Signed) "Dandy Jim of Carroll Gray-bill." The fourth, delivered at Birmingham, was addressed to General Theodore Carson, M. A. ("Monopolist of the Air"), and consisted of ten repetitions of "Eureka," signed "D. J. of C."

The last came at Ray Maette and was too astonishing to be explained on any theory consistent with Craighead's sobriety and sanity. "Caroline's dad," it read, "falls dead at unveiling of Brown Idea. Sees absolute clach and rises to it as per lifelong custom. Formed today Universal Nitrites and Air Products company. Laws of West Virginia. You come in for 25 per cent. Corollus impressed. Either universal goggles or rodents in campulose. Greatly encouraged, not to say titivated. Almost converted to belief in my own schemes and self, but am cautiously suspending judgment. Will have Chicago surrounded by time you return. Go east to Wheeling or in Charleston capital? tonight and will incidentally run up and construct first line of circunvallation (see cyclopedias about Greater New York. Monopoly end of deal absolutely nailed down; brass nails, with Waddy doubtless coming copious. Up to you to produce fire. Getting wabbly in head. Losing faith in you as concrete entity. Have you any aerone? Answer 'Yes' or 'No' at once." This also was signed "D. J. of Caroline."

What could he mean by an "old broom"? The old copy of Brown's Legal Maxims in Craighead's "library" was indeed minus a cover and dog's eared, but how this "broom" could, even in a metaphor, yoke the whirligig to any car and sweep the howling skies Carson could not guess. Mr. Waddy's demand for aeronautical monopoly was being complied with, to Mr. Craighead's mind, and the last telegram seemed to imply that the bucolic financier had been convinced. His "falling dead" might mean much or little, but his "doubtless coming copious" was eloquent of faith. And what in the name of all the gods in once could a "Universal Nitrites and Air Products company" mean in an aerial navigation deal or those mysterious expressions about "surrounding" Chicago and Greater New York? Well, Aunt Chloe was in there, shuffling about, wondering where he might be, and here he was, looking on apocalyptically and unsuspected. With the common human impulse to secret apoplexy, Theodore walked on, concealed between the Spanish bayonets and a somber line of red cedars, climbed the end of the veranda, scuttled into the broad hall and up to his room, into which he stepped quickly, breathing a little harder. He opened the closet for a change of clothes and started back in wonderment quite as paralyzing as horror, for his clothes were gone. Instead there sat a huge trunk with its lid back, its open tray full of silken hosiery, corsets, laces, gloves, handkerchiefs and openwork things of mystery and terror. On the hooks were many, many others quite as awful, frilled and tucked and ruffled and plaited garments, silks, dimities, cashmere, laces, cottons and soft light woollens, filling his closet and spread against the wall for occult reasons connected with keeping them in shape and protruding from the trunk were more clothes, while in corners of the bedroom were more trunks.

A light step sounded, and he froze to a statue of panic and trance and paralysis. Some one entered. His heart bounded and then stood still, for it was Psyche of the dunes, Shayne's niece, Virginia, entering jauntily, maddeningly, like a real woman taking possession of his bedroom as her own! She had a little subjectively derived smile on her lips, held in her hands a spray of huckleberry blossoms, which she put to her nostrils and then stuck in a vase by the old mirror. "Psyche," he stammered.

With a little scream she darted toward the door, recognized him as he emerged from the closet, noted his paleness, turned back, her hand on her breast and a quick palpitation in the "V" of her gown, like the heart of a snared robin. Yet she was the least excited of the twain. Her alarm ceased with her recognition of him.

"My robber," said she in a half whisper. "Oh, I'm so glad!"

"MY ROBBER," SAID SHE IN A HALF WHISPER.

"Psyche," said he, "when you say you are glad—"

"Oh, I'm so glad you aren't dashed to pieces!" she cried. "I've seen you falling, falling, falling, in my dreams and never aching! But evidently you did!"

"Yes," said he, "quite safe. But how came you here?"

"Oh, I live here," said she. "But how did you know? Or did you just happen? Shall I hide you? I'll never betray you, never, no matter what they say you've done!"

"You—belong—here?" repeated Theodore wonderingly. "Here? You—you live here?"

"Yes," said she hurriedly—"with my uncle. I couldn't endure the Shaynes and Silberbergs any longer. Why, the way they did just drives people to crime! And if you did anything it was in open war with the of ficers and not by stealth as the Shaynes and Silberbergs do. I told them so to their teeth—only you ought to reform and all that, you know. And I couldn't bear Aunt Marie any more," here the voice trembled, "though everybody will say I'm ungrateful and all that. And General Carson's family are all my relatives in the world, except the Shaynes. And this is their plantation—my uncle that I never saw lives here—and I came to him. I hope he won't hate me. I'd rather not have to ask him to shelter a robber the very first thing, and so I hope you aren't pursued. But if you are I'll hide you before I'll see you caught. There!"

Mr. Carson reeled back against the wall, drew his hands across his eyes and looked again. She seemed to be there still, rather nearer than before, hands clasped in adorable anxiety, di vine pity in her eyes.

"Of course it's a shock," said Miss Suarez, "to find you—"

"I am sorry," said Theodore, "to have shocked you by being visible."

"Oh, now," said Miss Suarez, "try to supply ellipses—and—and—those things. I meant to find you so!"

"So incapable of—so lacking in the qualities of—of—"

"You're gradually getting closer to it," commented Virginia. "Our danger, where there is nobody hanging about to sort of mitigate—no, not that—to—"

"To absorb, and diffuse the 'shock,'" suggested the engineer.

Muscatine, Ia., Aug. 9.—Former Gov. J. W. Folk, of Missouri, who is being hoisted as a Democratic candidate for president in 1912, was injured in an automobile smashup near here this afternoon, when to save the machine from turning turtle, the driver took a ditch and hit a telephone pole.

Mr. Folk and three companions were hurled out of the machine and the governor sustained bad bruises on his right arm and left leg. The right wrist was also sprained when he struck the bank. Although suffering much pain Gov. Folk addressed a crowd of 5,000 persons this afternoon.

"I don't think any of you children take after your father?"

"No, ma'am. Mammy takes after him with a broom, now and then, but we ain't growed up enough for that yet!"—Cleveland Leader.

"The very word," said she. "Why, uncle, you're clever—once in a while!"

"Thank you, Miss Virginia. I—"

"Don't interrupt, please. Our danger here in the wilderness is that of not catching the shades of expression. The nuances one has to have ground into one's system with regard to one's friends—if nuances can be ground into anything—and that we'll misunderstand and fight and pull hair needlessly—doesn't that cover the case?"

"I don't think it does quite. But you were saying I lack some quality. Please go on."

"The quality of unclehood," said she. "You don't create the role. I suppose my image of a charming young robber, for you're not had looking, uncle, you know."

Theodore blushed.

"Piracy and yeagism and those things are so incompatible with one's only surviving live live-with-able uncle," said Virginia.

"In 'The Lanes In the Wood,'" said Theodore, "the uncle was quite that sort."

"The odd thing with us—I like living with you immensely—is that you seem a babe in the woods more than an uncle, and I the other."

"What I wish you to understand is how honored I am to be your guardian, even though I don't deserve it."

"Oh, but you do!" said she. "And there's the Carson blood, isn't there?"

"There's the Carson blood," assented Theodore uneasily, "and the trust that blood alone couldn't confer."

"And the relationship must stand in the place of years," said Virginia, "for I can't go back to the Shaynes. I'm afraid they'll find me and make me!"

"You shall not go back," said Theodore. "Never!"

"My, my!" said Virginia. "How fierce, uncle! And now let's go fishing."

Yes, Theodore had fallen. Fleeing the best bedroom, in which Aunt Chloe had established Miss Suarez, he had unmoored his launch for flight, but, reconsidering, had demanded of Chloe an explanation of the incomprehensible mystery of the presence, under a statement that she lived there, of Shayne's niece.

"She's come to live with us all," said Aunt Chloe. "She's klu o' ou'n."

Theodore gasped.

"There must be some mistake," said he. "How can she be related to me, Chloe?"

"W'y, yo' some klu o' uncle to hub," replied Chloe. "Hub motha was a daughter to ole Gin'el Cabson. She married Lee Suarez and died. Miss Glimk knowed about us, an' when hub aunt throwed hub off'n the alabshup fob stan'hu' up fob you she come hyah, ez she had a right to, sub."

"But she didn't know I was here?" Theodore suggested.

"Oh, law, no," replied Aunt Chloe. "She don't know yo' Mistah Carson yit onless yo' tole hub."

"But, Aunt Chloe, we aren't any kin to ole General Carson, are we? And I'm no uncle to this young lady, am I?"

Aunt Chloe was indignant.

"Hev Ah been wuck'n' fob yo' whiles all these yehs?" said she. "Yo' as ez ez as uncle. Yo' paw knowed he was a Cabson."

"What have you told her about this relationship?" said Theodore.

"She knowed all erbout it."

"Did she know how father—how nobody thinks we are any kin to the general and—"

"Who you mean by nobody?" queried Chloe. "Ah reckon we some klu o' ou' name wouldn't be Cabson, would it? Ah tuk hub in as a Cabson. If you tuk hub in yo' alius an' squeened hub teahs I reckon you wouldn't be bring'n' up these heavy arguments."

Uncle Theodore was stately, ceremonious and, with due allowance for sundry blushes when Miss Virginia emitted a little giggle, promptly smothered in her napkin, quite grand in his demeanor at luncheon. He formally kissed Virginia's hand, and when she told of her need, of her reliance on the Carson identity, he yielded to the temptation without a moment's hesitation. He became her uncle, entered calmly upon the deception, oblivious of the vast consequences involved.

"I have the honnh," said he, "to drink your health—the health of the jewel and the hope of the Carson family."

She rose as if at a formal signal for withdrawal, took both his hands and kissed him on the forehead. There were tears in her eyes.

Marked by a large attendance was the open air meeting of the McCracken County Medical Society, which was held this morning at Lone Oak. Dr. Horace Rivers read an interesting paper on "Malaria Fever" and Dr. T. L. Lankin, of Lone Oak, read an excellent paper on "Typhoid Fever." Both subjects were well covered and contained valuable points. The meeting was held in the large grove of shade trees and at noon a basket dinner and barbecue were enjoyed. Physicians and their families were in attendance and an enjoyable meeting was held. Out of door meetings have been held each month during the summer and have proven delightful in every respect.

KENTUCKY KNIGHTS

MOST POPULAR SPOT AT THE TEMPLE CONCLAVE.

Keen Hilarity for the Next Gathering
in 1913—Los Angeles a Factor.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—The words "Kentucky Hospitality, and Kentucky Products Dispensed," which artistically emblazoned above the entrance to the headquarters of the Louisville Knights Templar, have made their suit of rooms the most popular in the Congress hotel. Oscar E. Rehm, arrived in Chicago Sunday and engaged painters and decorators so that when the Kentucky command arrived they found all in readiness for their reception and many visitors waiting to be received, being attracted by the wording of a good sign.

The Kentucky knights arrived and falling in behind their escorts marched at once to the Congress hotel. Among the ladies of the Kentucky party are: Mrs. W. B. Trumbull, wife of the eminent commander; Mrs. W. H. Hadeville, Mrs. O. E. Rehm and Miss Daisy Porter.

The Fulton (Ky.) commandery arrived early. Each knight wore a twist of hurray tobacco on his lapel. They were led by Eminent Commander George W. Gates, and were escorted to the Hotel Congress headquarters for Kentucky. The Paducah and Princeton delegations arrived later, the former led by E. W. Whittemore.

The Mutuals, an organization of past and present recorders of the Knights Templar, elected the following officers at their triennial banquet last night: Regent, Sir Knight General John Corson Smith, of Chicago; vice regent, Sir Knight John C. Kidd, of Houston, Texas; treasurer, Sir Knight Harper M. Oranhood, of Denver; secretary, Sir Knight John H. Miller, of Baltimore; chaplain, Sir Knight Rev. Joseph E. Robins, of Manchester, N. H.

After Next Conclave.
Keen rivalry to secure the Knights Templar conclave of 1913 developed today as delegation after delegation to the present meeting arrived. Los Angeles, Denver, New Orleans, Atlanta City and Atlanta are actively seeking the honor. All are keeping open house.

The John L. Lowry will be the Evansville packet today. She was delayed in arriving owing to the fog last night.

Delayed by heavy business and the dense fog last night the Robert Rhea did not arrive from Nashville until today.

The J. H. Richardson will arrive tomorrow from Nashville and leave at 4 p. m. for a return trip.

The Clyde is receiving freight at the wharfboat and leaves this evening for Waterloo, Ala. She will have a big trip.

With a good trip of miscellaneous freight the City of Savannah arrived at 6:30 o'clock last night from Waterloo, Ala., and left an hour later for St. Louis.

Emmett Graves, who has been acting wharfmaster, will go out on the Clyde this evening, relieving Al Rittenhouse, who will have charge of the wharfboat while Wharfmaster Frank Brown is in command of the Clyde.

Capt. Harry Hazelton went out pilot on the towboat Vernie Mac, towing the showboat Wonderland, this morning at 6 o'clock when she left for a three weeks' trip up the Tennessee river.

The Condor came up from Joppa last night and returned this morning.

All of the regular daily packets arrived on time today and did a good business. The Robertson carried a big excursion to Metropolis and return last night.

The government gauge read 8.2 feet at 7 o'clock this morning, showing a fall of seven-tenths of a foot in the past 24 hours.

The monitor Amphitrite is anchored at Memphis and each day the falling river gives assurance of a longer holiday for the jockies in the bluff city. The strange craft is drawing large crowds. She is destined for St. Louis, but it is believed she will be held at Memphis several weeks before a sufficient rise to enable her to steam to the Mound City.

The Evansville Courier of yesterday says: "The Meteor left for Mammoth Cave yesterday with a tow of empties for a trip of five. She will return in about 15 days and will then be taken to Rumsey, where she will be hauled out for thorough repairs to her hull, after which she will be brought back to this city to receive two new steel boilers, steel cylinder timbers and a new pair of engines. The new engines are 11 inches 3 foot stroke, taking place of her present engines, which are 10 inches 3 foot stroke. Albert Hickman will superintend the installation of the new machinery."

The Louisville Herald says: "All the speedy motorboats on the Ohio are being given tryouts daily in view of the fact that the motorboat races will be held under the auspices of the Louisville Motorboat club on August 20. The previous regatta proved to be a great success and the motorboat owners promise to go in for the coming races even stronger than before. Arrangements have been made to bring some of the

HOW TO CONSERVATION.

Roosevelt's World-Wide Movement
Pronounced Dead.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Former President Roosevelt's proposition to make conservation a world wide movement by a conference of nations is pronounced officially by the state department to be dead.

Of the forty-nine governments represented diplomatically in Washington which were invited just before the former president went out of office, to join the movement, only nineteen have replied. The answers of some of the governments were of such a disinterested character that it was officially decided to carry the proposal no further.

TROOPS FIGHT

TAFT GIVES ORDERS TO USE
SOLDIERS TO SAVE TREES.

One Thousand Men Needed in Washington—Solid Sheets of Flame.

Washington, Aug. 10.—President Taft has authorized the use of troops to fight forest fires in Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

The war department has ordered Maj. Gen. T. H. Barry, commanding the department of California, headquarters at San Francisco; Brig. Gen. M. H. Mann, commanding the department of the Columbia, with headquarters at Vancouver, B. C.; Brig. Gen. Walter Howe, commanding the department of Dakota, at St. Paul, Minn., to hold the troops at all points in their commands in readiness to fight the forest fires.

Troops will be furnished as they are requested by the district officials of the national forests. Commanders of posts will be instructed to give immediate assistance in case of a call in their territory.

Associate Forester Potter has sent a telegram to the district foresters at San Francisco, Missoula, Mont., and Portland, Ore., who have charge of the forest where the fires are raging, advising them that they may call upon the army for aid.

Electricity isn't a modern discovery. It is as old as the flood. How do you make that out? Why, didn't Noah have to have ark lights?—Scraps.

TO ASYLUM

BERNIE GRIFFIN, OF MARSHALL
COUNTY, IS TAKEN.

Adjudged Lunatic and Given Into Custody of Dr. H. P. Sights.

Adjudged a lunatic at Henton yesterday, Bernie Griffin, 40 years old, and pitiful in appearance, was taken to the insane asylum at Hopkinsville at 11:20 o'clock this morning by Dr. H. P. Sights, superintendent of the institution.

Griffin lived in Marshall county, 12 miles from Henton, and three weeks ago his actions alarmed his family and neighbors. He was taken to Henton and tried and brought here yesterday afternoon late by J. J. Chambers and John Brown, special deputies, detailed to convey him here. Dr. Sights was notified and arrived this morning. Griffin is in a bad condition mentally and imagines himself an officer in search of bootleggers.

COURT MARTIAL ORDERED.

Capt. W. P. Greeney Will Be Placed on Trial.

Cairo, Ill., Aug. 9.—Capt. W. P. Greeney, of Company K, Illinois National Guards, has been notified that a court of inquiry will be held in Cairo on Wednesday night, August 10, to inquire into his alleged failure to come to the aid of Sheriff Neill promptly on the night of February 17, last, when the county jail was attacked. The court will consist of Col. Frank S. Wood, Fifth Infantry; Lieut. Col. James Honayne, Maj. E. P. Clayton, Fourth Infantry, and Capt. and Assistant Surgeon George A. Cloutier, Fifth Infantry. Witnesses summoned to appear before the court are: Col. C. E. Homan, Fourth regiment, and Capt. Frank E. Taylor, Fourth Infantry. Both of these officers were under service here following the riot.

Additional charges are that the members of Company K broke up the furniture in the sheriff's office and that the payroll of the company was padded.

One Side Enough.

Senator William Alden Smith asks the evident desire of Col. Roosevelt to listen to the plaints of both insurgents and regulars places him in a different category from an Irish justice of the peace out in Michigan. In a trial the evidence was all in and the plaintiff's attorney had made a long and very eloquent argument, when the lawyer rising for the defense arose.

"What you doing?" asked the justice, as the lawyer began.

"Going to present our side of the case."

"I don't want to hear both sides argued. It has a tendency to confuse the court."—Washington Star.

Expert Opinion—"Yes," said young Mrs. Torkins "I'm sure our garden is going to make a success."

"So soon?"
"Yes, the chickens have tasted everything and they are perfectly enthusiastic."—Washington Star.
